

Word family: **result / resulted / resulting / resultant**

**Base word:** result

**Past tense:** resulted

**Past participle:** resulted

**Related forms:** resulting, resultant

**Part of speech:** noun (名詞) / verb (動詞) / adjective (相關形式)

Your heading:

> “## **Result** and final reflection”

Meaning in this heading

Here, **result** means **the outcome or final effect produced by the experience, advertisement, or decision**.

**繁體中文:** **某件事發生、某個行動完成或某個過程結束後所產生的最終結果／成效**

A natural translation is:

> **「結果與最後反思」**

or, depending on the essay:

> **「最終結果與反思」**

**result = 某個行動、事件或過程最後產生的結果或成效**

---

1. **result = outcome of an action/event/process (行動／事件／過程) — 結果; 後果; 成效**

This is the meaning in your heading.

**Meaning:** What happens or exists because of an action, event, process, or situation.

Practice 1

> “The campaign produced excellent **results**.”

「這次宣傳活動取得了很好的**成果／成效**。」

Practice 2

> “The final result was better than we expected.”

「最終結果比我們預期的更好。」 result = 某個行動、事件或過程完成後產生的最終結果或成效

Natural Chinese varies by context:

* experiment result → 實驗結果

* business result → 業績／成果

* treatment result → 治療效果

* decision result → 決定造成的結果

---

2. result = consequence/effect (某事造成的後果) — 後果; 結果

Meaning: Something that happens because of an earlier cause, especially when emphasizing cause and effect.

### Practice 3

> “The delays were the result of poor planning.”

「這些延誤是規劃不善所造成的結果／後果。」

### Practice 4

> “Stress can be a result of long working hours.”

「壓力可能是長時間工作所造成的結果。」 result = 由某個原因直接導致的後果或結果

This is closely related to #1, but here the emphasis is especially on:

> cause → result

3. result = test/exam/measurement outcome (測驗／考試／檢查) — 成績; 檢查結果; 測量結果

Meaning: The information or score produced by a test, examination, measurement, or analysis.

### Practice 5

> “I received my exam results yesterday.”

「我昨天收到考試成績。」

### Practice 6

> “The blood test results were normal.”

「驗血結果正常。」

result = 測試、考試、檢查或分析完成後所得的分數、數據或結論

Chinese depends strongly on context:

* exam results → 考試成績

* test results → 測試結果

* medical results → 檢查結果

* survey results → 調查結果

---

4. result = sports/election/competition outcome (比賽／競賽的結果) — 賽果; 結果

Meaning: The final outcome of a match, competition, contest, etc.

### Practice 7

> “What was the result of the match?”

「那場比賽的賽果是甚麼？」

### Practice 8

> “The team was disappointed with the result.”

「球隊對比賽結果感到失望。」 result = 比賽或競爭完成後所得的最終勝負或成績

This is still one broader “outcome” meaning, but a very common context.

---

5. result = achieved performance/output(工作／業務) — 成果; 業績

Meaning: A measurable achievement or performance produced by work or effort.

Practice 9

> “The new strategy delivered strong results.”

「新策略帶來了很好的成果／業績。」

Practice 10

> “Managers are under pressure to produce results.”

「經理承受壓力，要交出實際的成果／業績。」 results = 可量度、可觀察並證明工作有效的成果或業績

This is especially common in:

- * business
- * sales
- * management
- * performance reviews

---

6. result in + outcome(結果／後果) — 導致; 造成

Here, result is a verb.

Meaning: To cause or lead to a particular outcome.

Practice 11

> “Poor communication can result in mistakes.”

「溝通不良可能會導致錯誤。」

Practice 12

> “The campaign resulted in higher sales.”

「這次宣傳活動帶來／導致了更高的銷售額。」

**result in + outcome = 某個原因最後導致某種結果****

Think:

> **A results in B****

> = **A 導致 B****

---

7. **result from + cause (原因) — 由.....造成; 源於.....****

**Meaning:** To happen because of a particular cause.

Practice 13

> “The damage **resulted from** a water leak.”

「損壞是**由漏水造成的****。」

Practice 14

> “Many of the problems **result from** poor planning.”

「很多問題都**源於規劃不善****。」

**result from + cause = 某個結果是由某個原因引起的****

Think:

> **B results from A****

> = **B 是由 A 造成****

This is the reverse direction of **result in****.

Extremely important: **result in vs result from****

**result in****

Cause → result

> “Stress **resulted in** poor sleep.”

「壓力**導致**睡眠質素差。」

**result from**

Result ← cause

> “Poor sleep **resulted from** stress.”

「睡眠質素差是**由壓力造成的**。」

Same relationship, opposite grammatical direction.

---

8. **as a result — 因此; 結果; 所以**

A very common linking expression.

**Meaning:** Because of what was just mentioned.

Practice 15

> “The train was delayed. **As a result**, I missed the meeting.”

「火車延誤了。**因此**，我錯過了會議。」

Practice 16

> “The advertisement felt relatable. **As a result**, I became interested in the product.”

「這則廣告很容易令人產生共鳴。**因此**，我開始對產品感興趣。」

**as a result = 前面所述的原因造成後面的結果, 因此／所以**

---

9. **as a result of + cause (原因) — 由於; 因為……的結果**

**Meaning:** Because of something.

Practice 17

> “Sales increased **as a result of** the campaign.”

「**由於**這次宣傳活動, 銷售額有所上升。」

### Practice 18

> “He became exhausted **as a result of** working long hours.”

「他**因為長時間工作**而變得筋疲力盡。」

**as a result of = 某件事情是由後面所提的原因造成的**

---

10. **with the result that + clause (結果是.....) — 結果導致.....**

This is more formal.

### Practice 19

> “The system failed, **with the result that** several services stopped.”

「系統故障, **結果導致**多項服務停止。」

### Practice 20

> “He left late, **with the result that** he missed the train.”

「他太遲出發, **結果**錯過了火車。」

**with the result that... = 前面情況造成後面所述的結果**

---

11. **resulting + noun (由前因造成的結果) — 因而產生的; 隨之而來的**

Here, **resulting** is an adjective.

### Practice 21

> “The power cut and the **resulting** delays caused major disruption.”

「停電以及**隨之而來的延誤**造成嚴重混亂。」

### Practice 22

> “The accident and the resulting damage were expensive to repair.”

「事故以及由此造成的損壞維修費用很高。」 resulting = 因前面某件事情發生而隨之產生的

---

12. resultant = produced as a result of something (由某事產生的) — 由此產生的; 因此形成的

This is more formal/technical than resulting.

### Practice 23

> “The pressure increased, and the resultant damage was severe.”

「壓力增加, 而由此造成的損壞相當嚴重。」

### Practice 24

> “The two forces combine to produce a resultant force.”

「兩個力結合後產生一個合力／合成力。」 resultant = 由一個或多個原因、作用或力量共同產生的結果性事物

In everyday English, resulting is more common.

---

13. resultant = physics/mathematics (合成結果) — 合力; 合成量

Here, resultant can be a noun in technical contexts.

### Practice 25

> “The resultant of the two forces points north.”

「兩個力的合力／合成結果指向北方。」

### Practice 26

> “Engineers calculated the resultant of the forces.”

「工程師計算了各個力的**合成結果／合力**。」

**resultant = 多個向量、力量等合成後所得的單一結果****

This is specialist but common enough in physics/maths to recognize.

## Important distinction: **result vs outcome****

They overlap strongly.

### **result****

very broad and common:

- * test result

- * business result

- * result of a decision

### **outcome****

often emphasizes the **final consequence after a process or situation****

> “The outcome of the negotiations was positive.”

「談判的最終結果是正面的。」

In many contexts, either works.

---

## Important distinction: **result vs consequence****

### **result** neutral:

can be good, bad, or neither.

### **consequence** often emphasizes an effect that follows from an action, especially an important or negative one.

> “The result was excellent.”

「結果很好。」

> “There may be serious consequences.”

「可能有嚴重後果。」

So consequence often sounds more serious.

---

## Important distinction: result vs effect*

### result*

= what ultimately happens

### effect*

= the change or influence something produces

> “The result of the campaign was higher sales.”

「宣傳活動的結果是銷售上升。」

> “The campaign had a positive effect on sales.”

「宣傳活動對銷售產生正面影響。」

Closely related, but the grammatical focus differs.

---

## Important distinction: result vs reason*

This connects to your earlier word reason.

### reason*

= why something happened

### result*

= what happened because of it > reason: good advertising > result: increased sales

So:

reason = 原因

result = 結果

---

## Important distinction: result in vs cause

### cause

directly says one thing produces another.

> “The delay caused problems.”

### result in

means essentially the same, but is often a little more formal.

> “The delay resulted in problems.”

Both:

「延誤導致了問題。」

## Important grammar/countability note

### Countable:

> “The test produced three interesting results.”

「測試得出了三個有趣結果。」

### Uncountable-like business expression:

> “We need to deliver results.”

Here results is plural but broadly means:

成果／業績

Also note:

> the result of something ✓

> a result of something ✓

Family-extension note

Following our Golden Manual, useful expressions include:

- * result of = .....的結果
- * result in = 導致
- * result from = 由.....造成
- * as a result = 因此
- * as a result of = 由於
- * with the result that = 結果導致.....
- * test results = 測試結果
- * exam results = 考試成績
- * business results = 業績／成果
- * resulting = 隨之產生的
- * resultant = 由此形成的;技術上可指合力／合成量

For your heading

> “## **Result** and final reflection”

The exact meaning is:

**result = 某件事、經歷或行動最後產生的結果、成效或影響****

So a natural Traditional Chinese heading would be:

> **「結果與最後反思」****

or slightly more polished:

> **「最終結果與反思」****
