

Here's the full curation for plant, anchored to the passage sentence "In a way, she planted a seed."

PLANT

1. Passage anchor

> "In a way, she planted a seed."

Passage meaning

plant = introduce an idea, belief, feeling, or possibility so that it can develop over time 種下；植入；播下（想法、信念、可能性）

Here, plant a seed is metaphorical.

Mrs. Chan's words introduced an idea into the speaker's mind:

- * stop chasing perfection
- * value clarity and honesty
- * trust your own voice

That idea then continued to grow over time.

Practice

1. Her advice planted a seed of confidence in me.
她的建議在我心中種下了自信的種子。
2. The conversation planted the idea that I might enjoy teaching.
那次談話在我心中種下了也許我會喜歡教學的想法。

Core meanings of PLANT

2. plant — noun: a living organism that grows in soil, usually with roots, stems, and leaves

= a living thing such as a flower, tree, grass, or shrub

植物

Examples

1. This plant needs plenty of sunlight.
這株植物需要充足的陽光。

2. We have several indoor plants.

我們有幾盆室內植物。

This is the central noun meaning.

3. plant — a particular cultivated plant

= an individual plant grown for food, decoration, medicine, etc.

植株；植物

Examples

1. Each tomato plant produced a lot of fruit.

每株番茄植株都結了很多果實。

2. The garden contains more than fifty different plants.

這座花園裡有五十多種不同的植物。

Verb: put a plant into the ground

4. plant something

= put a seed, bulb, or young plant into soil so that it can grow

種植；栽種；播種

Examples

1. We planted tomatoes in the garden.

我們在花園裡種了番茄。

2. She planted a tree beside the house.

她在房子旁邊種了一棵樹。

This is the core verb meaning.

5. plant seeds

= put seeds in the ground so that they can grow

播種；種下種子

Examples

1. Farmers plant seeds in spring.
農民在春天播種。

2. We planted sunflower seeds along the fence.
我們沿著籬笆種下向日葵種子。

This literal use is the source of the passage metaphor.

Figurative idea-development sense

6. plant an idea

= cause an idea to begin developing in someone's mind

在某人心中植入想法；種下念頭

Examples

1. The documentary planted the idea of travelling abroad in her mind.
那部紀錄片在她心中種下了出國旅行的念頭。

2. His question planted an idea that I could not stop thinking about.
他的問題在我心中植入了一個揮之不去的想法。

Very high-value figurative use.

7. plant a seed

= introduce an idea or possibility that may gradually develop

種下一顆種子；播下想法的種子

Examples

1. One encouraging comment can plant a seed that grows for years.
一句鼓勵的話可以種下一顆種子，並在多年後繼續成長。

2. The trip planted a seed of curiosity about other cultures.
那次旅行在她心中種下了對其他文化好奇的種子。

This is the exact passage expression.

8. plant a doubt / suspicion

= cause someone to begin doubting or suspecting something

使某人產生懷疑；種下疑念

Examples

1. His strange answer planted a doubt in my mind.
他奇怪的回答在我心中種下了疑問。
2. The comment planted suspicion among the team members.
那番話在團隊成員之間引起了猜疑。

The metaphor is the same:
something small is introduced and later grows.

9. plant hope / confidence / fear

= introduce or strengthen a feeling that may develop

種下希望 / 信心 / 恐懼

Examples

1. Her support planted hope in people who had nearly given up.
她的支持在幾乎放棄的人心中種下了希望。
2. The experience planted confidence in him.
那次經歷在他心中建立起 / 種下了自信。

Some combinations are more literary than everyday.

Put firmly in a position

10. plant something somewhere

= place or fix something firmly in a particular position

放置；牢牢置於；插在

Examples

1. He planted his feet firmly on the ground.

他把雙腳牢牢站在地上。

2. She planted the flag at the top of the hill.

她把旗子插在山頂。

This sense emphasizes firm placement.

11. plant your feet

= place your feet firmly and steadily

站穩；把腳穩穩踩住

Examples

1. Plant your feet shoulder-width apart.

把雙腳穩穩站開至與肩同寬。

2. He planted his feet and refused to move.

他站穩腳步，拒絕移動。

Often literal, but can suggest determination.

12. plant a flag

= place a flag firmly in the ground, often to mark achievement, possession, or presence

插旗

Examples

1. The climbers planted a flag at the summit.

登山者在山頂插了一面旗。

2. The team planted its flag near the camp.

團隊在營地附近插上旗幟。

Can also become figurative in business or politics, meaning establish a presence.

Put something secretly or deceptively

13. plant evidence

= secretly place evidence somewhere so that someone appears guilty

栽贓；植入假證據

Examples

1. The officer was accused of planting evidence.
那名警員被指控*栽贓、放置假證據*。
2. Someone had planted the weapon in the room.
有人把武器*故意放在房間裡栽贓*。

This is a genuinely distinct and important figurative sense.

14. plant drugs / a weapon / an object

= secretly put something in a place, usually to deceive, frame, or manipulate

暗中放置；栽贓放置

Examples

1. They claimed the drugs had been planted.
他們聲稱那些毒品是被人*栽贓放置的*。
2. The suspect said the weapon was planted in his car.
嫌疑人聲稱那件武器是有人*偷偷放進他車裡栽贓的*。

Place a person secretly

15. plant someone somewhere

= secretly place a person in a group, audience, organization, etc. for a hidden purpose

安插；秘密安排

Examples

1. The police planted an officer inside the organization.
警方在該組織內*安插了一名警員*。
2. They planted someone in the audience to ask the first question.
他們在觀眾中*事先安排了一個人*來問第一個問題。

16. a plant — a secretly placed person

= a person deliberately put somewhere to influence events or gather information

安插的人；內應；托兒

Examples

1. Some people suspected that the enthusiastic audience member was a plant.

有些人懷疑那名特別熱情的觀眾是*事先安排的托兒*。

2. The investigator turned out to be a police plant.

那名調查員後來被發現是警方*安插的內應*。

This is a distinct noun meaning.

Industrial meaning

17. plant — factory or industrial facility

= a large building or group of buildings where goods are manufactured or industrial processes take place

工廠；廠房；生產設施

Examples

1. The company opened a new manufacturing plant.

公司開設了一座新的製造*工廠*。

2. The plant employs more than a thousand workers.

這座*工廠*僱用了超過一千名員工。

Very common in business and industrial English.

18. power plant

= a facility where electricity is generated

發電廠

Examples

1. The city gets electricity from a nearby power plant.
這座城市的電力來自附近的*發電廠*。

2. The old power plant was closed last year.
那座老*發電廠*去年關閉了。

19. manufacturing plant

= factory where products are manufactured
製造廠；生產工廠

Examples

1. The company built a new manufacturing plant overseas.
公司在海外建立了一座新的*製造廠*。

2. Production resumed at the manufacturing plant.
該*生產工廠*恢復了生產。

20. processing plant

= industrial facility where raw materials are treated or processed
加工廠；處理廠

Examples

1. The fish are sent to a local processing plant.
魚會被送到當地的*加工廠*。

2. Waste is treated at a specialized processing plant.
廢棄物在專門的*處理廠*中處理。

Equipment / machinery

21. plant — heavy machinery or equipment used for industrial or construction work

Especially in British English:

= large machines and equipment used in industry or construction

大型機械設備；工程設備

Examples

1. Heavy plant was brought onto the construction site.
工地運進了大型*工程機械設備*。
2. The company hires out construction plant.
該公司出租建築用*大型機械設備*。

This is lower priority for general learners but established.

Verb: settle or place a kiss / blow

22. plant a kiss on someone

= give someone a deliberate, often firm kiss

在某人.....上親一下

Examples

1. She planted a kiss on his cheek.
他在他的臉頰上*親了一下*。
2. He planted a quick kiss on her forehead.
他在她額頭上*快速親了一下*。

The underlying idea is “place firmly.”

23. plant a punch / blow

= deliver a punch or blow firmly

重重打一拳；給予一擊

Examples

1. He planted a punch on the opponent's jaw.
他在對手下巴上*重重打了一拳*。
2. The boxer planted a solid blow to the body.
拳擊手朝身體部位*打出結實的一擊*。

More vivid and informal than simply hit.

Establish firmly

24. plant yourself somewhere

= sit, stand, or position yourself firmly in one place

站定；坐定；把自己固定在某處

Examples

1. She planted herself in front of the door.

她站定在門前。

2. He planted himself on the sofa and refused to move.

他一屁股坐在沙發上，不肯動。

Often informal and vivid.

Word-family forms

25. planting

A. activity of putting plants/seeds into the ground

種植；栽種

1. Spring is the best time for planting.

春天是最適合種植的季節。

B. things planted in a particular arrangement

種植配置；植栽

2. The garden uses dense planting along the wall.

花園沿牆採用了密集的植栽配置。

26. planter

A. container used for growing plants

花盆；種植箱

1. The herbs are growing in a wooden planter.
香草種在木製*種植箱*裡。

B. person who plants

種植者

2. The early planters introduced new crops to the region.
早期的*種植者*把新作物引進該地區。

The second is less common in everyday modern English.

27. plantation

= a large estate or area where crops such as tea, coffee, rubber, or sugar are grown commercially 種植園

Examples

1. They visited a tea plantation.
他們參觀了一座茶葉*種植園*。
2. Coffee plantations cover much of the hillside.
咖啡*種植園*覆蓋了大片山坡。

This is a useful lexical family member, though its historical context can vary by region.

28. replant

= plant again or move a plant and plant it elsewhere
重新種植；移植

Examples

1. We need to replant the flowers somewhere sunnier.
我們需要把花*重新種到*陽光更充足的地方。
2. The trees were removed and later replanted.
那些樹被移走後又重新*栽種*。

29. transplant

Verb

= move a plant from one place and plant it in another

移植

Noun

= an organ or tissue transferred medically; also the process

移植 ; 移植器官

Examples

1. The seedlings were transplanted into larger pots.
幼苗被*移植*到較大的花盆中。

2. He later required a kidney transplant.
他後來需要接受腎臟*移植*。

This family member has developed major meanings of its own and is best treated separately in full curation.

High-value expressions

30. plant the seeds of something

= create the beginning of a future development

播下.....的種子 ; 為.....埋下伏筆

Examples

1. The experience planted the seeds of change.
那次經歷*播下了改變的種子*。

2. Their early conversations planted the seeds of friendship.
他們早期的談話*為友誼埋下了種子*。

Highly relevant to the passage.

31. plant something firmly in someone's mind

= make an idea or memory strongly established in someone's thinking

把.....深深植入某人的腦海

Examples

1. The teacher planted the idea firmly in my mind.

老師把這個想法*深深植入我的腦海*。

2. The experience planted a lasting image in her mind.

那次經歷在她腦海裡*留下了深刻而持久的畫面*。

Key contrasts

32. plant vs grow

plant

= put a seed or young plant into soil

種；栽

grow

= become larger/develop, or cause plants to develop

生長；栽培

Compare:

> We planted tomatoes in April.

> 我們四月*種了番茄*。

> We grow tomatoes every summer.

> 我們每年夏天都*種植 / 栽培番茄*。 plant focuses on the act of putting them in the ground.

grow focuses on development or cultivation over time.

33. plant vs sow

sow

= put seeds into the soil

播種

plant

can be used for:

* seeds

* bulbs

* seedlings

* trees

* crops

Compare:

> sow seeds

> 播種

> plant a tree

> 種樹

You normally do not say sow a tree.

34. plant vs seed

As verbs:

plant

= put a seed/plant in a place so it grows seed

can mean scatter/sow seeds or introduce seeds into something.

plant is much more general for ordinary gardening.

35. plant vs factory

When plant means an industrial facility:

factory

= place where goods are manufactured

plant

= industrial facility, often including machinery and large-scale processes

Compare:

- * car factory
- * automobile manufacturing plant
- * chemical plant
- * power plant

Plant has a wider industrial range than factory.

36. plant vs place

place

= put something somewhere

放置

plant

= put something firmly, deliberately, or secretly in a position

牢牢放置；安插；栽贓

Compare:

> She placed the bag on the chair.

> 她把包放在椅子上。

> He planted his feet firmly.

> 他把腳*穩穩站住*。

The second has a stronger sense of firmness.

Meaning map

plant has several major modern branches.

Living organism

a plant

→ 植物

Cultivation

plant a seed / tree

→ 種植；栽種

Figurative development

plant an idea / plant a seed

→ 種下想法；埋下種子

Firm placement

plant your feet / plant a flag

→ 牢牢放置；插下

Secret placement

plant evidence / plant a person

→ 栽贓；安插

Industrial facility

manufacturing plant / power plant

→ 工廠；廠房

The figurative passage sense comes directly from the literal agricultural image:

put a seed in the ground

→ the seed grows later becomes:

put an idea in someone's mind

→ the idea develops later.

Passage recap

> “In a way, she planted a seed.”

Here, plant is metaphorical.

It means:

introduce an idea or influence that can gradually grow and develop

Best Traditional Chinese renderings:

* 種下了一顆種子

* 在我心中種下了一個想法

* 埋下了日後改變的種子

The metaphor is especially effective because Mrs. Chan's influence did not produce only an immediate reaction. Her words continued developing in the speaker's mind over time.

MCQ-ready meaning

plant in “plant a seed”

= introduce an idea, feeling, or possibility so that it may develop later

種下；植入；播下

It does not literally mean gardening in the passage, although the figurative sense is built directly from that literal image.