

INTELLIGENT

1. Passage anchor

> “The intelligent person I’d like to talk about is my former physics teacher, Ms. Lau.”

and later:

> “I think she is intelligent for several reasons.”

Passage meaning

intelligent = able to understand, learn, reason, solve problems, and make good judgments effectively

聰明的；有智慧的；理解力強的

In this passage, Ms. Lau is described as intelligent not only because she knows a lot academically, but because she can:

- * explain difficult ideas clearly,
- * read the room,
- * change her approach,
- * solve practical problems,
- * understand students’ emotions,
- * ask sharp questions.

So the meaning is broader than simply:

「成績好」
