

Absolutely — charge is one of the richest words in this whole passage. Your passage uses it primarily in the electric-vehicle sense:

- > “remove the inconvenience of charging”
- > “they may have nowhere reliable to charge their cars overnight”
- > “an electric car may require a working charger...”

Here charge means to put electrical energy into a battery, and charging means the process of replenishing that battery with electricity.

Word family: charge / charging / charged / charger

Base verb/noun: charge

Noun: charge

Noun: charger

Participle/adjective: charged

Gerund/noun: charging

Part of speech: verb (動詞) / noun (名詞) / adjective-like participle (分詞)

Major domains:

- * electricity / batteries
- * price / fees
- * accusations / law
- * responsibility / control
- * attack / rush forward
- * finance / accounts
- * emotion / atmosphere
- * physics
- * explosives
- * medical/hospital billing
- * cards/accounts

Different.

CG. CHARGER VS POWER ADAPTER

74. charger vs power adapter

charger

= intended to charge a battery.

= converts power for a device; may or may not actually manage battery charging.

In everyday speech, people often call many adapters:

> chargers

but technically they may differ.

CH. CHARGER VS CHARGING POINT

charger

= equipment/device delivering charge.

charging point

= location/interface where vehicle connects.

In EV contexts they often overlap in everyday use, but conceptually:

* charger = device

* point = place/connection point

CI. CHARGER VS CHARGING STATION

charger

= individual charging unit.

charging station

= site/location that may contain one or several chargers.

CJ. CHARGE LEVEL VS BATTERY LEVEL

charge level

= amount of stored electrical energy.

battery level

= same idea in everyday interface language.

Very close.

CK. STATE OF CHARGE

75. state of charge = 荷電狀態 ; 電量狀態

Technical battery term, often abbreviated:

> SOC / SoC

Practice 131

> “The battery’s state of charge is 60%.”

「電池的荷電狀態 / 電量是 60%。」

Practice 132

> “The system estimates state of charge continuously.”

「系統會持續估算電池荷電狀態。」

state of charge = battery’s current stored charge relative to capacity

CL. CHARGE RATE

76. charge rate = 充電速率 / 充電倍率

Practice 133

> “The charge rate slows near full capacity.”

「接近充滿時，充電速率會下降。」

Practice 134

> “High charge rates can generate more heat.”

「較高充電速率可能產生更多熱量。」

CM. CHARGING TIME

77. charging time = 充電時間

Practice 135

> “Charging time is a major concern for drivers.”

「充電時間是駕駛者的一大關注。」

Practice 136

> “Fast chargers reduce charging time.”

「快速充電器可以縮短充電時間。」

CN. CHARGING SPEED

78. charging speed = 充電速度

Practice 137

> “Charging speed depends on the battery and charger.”

「充電速度取決於電池和充電器。」

Practice 138

> “Cold weather can reduce charging speed.”

「寒冷天氣可能降低充電速度。」

CO. OVERCHARGE

79. overcharge = 收費過高；多收費

A major family extension.

Practice 139

> “The garage overcharged me.”

「車房多收了我的錢 / 收費過高。」

Practice 140

> “Customers complained about being overcharged.”

「顧客投訴被多收費。」

CP. OVERCHARGE — BATTERY

80. overcharge = 過度充電

A second meaning of the same derivative.

Practice 141

> “Do not overcharge the battery.”

「不要讓電池過度充電。」

Practice 142

> “The system prevents overcharging.”

「系統可以防止過度充電。」

Excellent polysemy inside the family:

> overcharge price vs overcharge battery.

CQ. UNDERCHARGE

81. undercharge = 收費過低 / 少收費

Practice 143

> “The company accidentally undercharged the customer.”

「公司不小心向顧客少收了費用。」

Practice 144

> “The invoice had undercharged several items.”

「發票有幾個項目少收了費用。」

CR. UNDERCHARGED BATTERY

82. undercharged = 電量不足的 / 未充足電的

Less common than:

> not fully charged / insufficiently charged

Practice 145

> “The battery was undercharged.”

「電池未充足電。」

Practice 146

> “An undercharged battery may reduce range.”

「電量不足的電池可能降低續航距離。」

CS. RECHARGE

83. recharge = 再充電；重新充電

Practice 147

> “The battery needs to be recharged.”

「電池需要重新充電。」

Practice 148

> “You can recharge the car overnight.”

「你可以在晚上替汽車重新充電。」

CT. RECHARGE — FIGURATIVE

84. recharge = restore your energy — 恢復精神；充充電

A common figurative extension.

Practice 149

> “I need a weekend to recharge.”

「我需要一個週末來恢復精神 / 充充電。」

Practice 150

> “A short break helped her recharge.”

「短暫休息幫助她恢復精力。」

This metaphor comes directly from battery charging.

CU. RECHARGE YOUR BATTERIES

85. recharge your batteries = 恢復精力；休息充電

Practice 151

> “Take a holiday and recharge your batteries.”

「放個假，好好休息恢復精力。」

Practice 152

> “The weekend gave him time to recharge his batteries.”

「週末讓他有時間休息充電。」

Very common idiom.

CV. CHARGE UP

Normally phrasal, so per your SOP I won't promote it as a main database branch. But for source comprehension:

> charge up a battery/device

> = 把電充足

Since phrasal verbs are excluded by default, we can leave it out of the core inventory.

CW. SURCHARGE

86. surcharge = 附加費；額外收費

A major lexicalized family extension.

Practice 153

> “A fuel surcharge was added.”

「加收了一筆燃油附加費。」

Practice 154

> “Fast charging may carry a surcharge.”

「快速充電可能需要支付附加費。」 surcharge = 加在基本價格之上的額外費用

CX. SURCHARGE — VERB

87. surcharge someone = 向某人加收附加費

Practice 155

> “Customers were surcharged for late booking.”

「顧客因太遲預訂而被*加收附加費*。」

Practice 156

> “The airline surcharged heavy bags.”

「航空公司對超重行李*加收費用*。」

CY. CHARGEABLE

88. chargeable = subject to a fee / taxable in some contexts — 收費的；應繳費的；應課稅的

Practice 157

> “Parking is chargeable after 6 p.m.”

「下午六時後泊車是*收費的*。」

Practice 158

> “Some services are chargeable.”

「某些服務需要*收費*。」

In tax:

> chargeable income/gain

> may mean

> 應課稅的

Domain-specific.

CZ. NON-CHARGEABLE

89. non-chargeable = 不收費的；不可計費的

Practice 159

> “The repair was non-chargeable under warranty.”

「保養期內這次維修是免費的 / 不收費的。」

Practice 160

> “Travel time may be non-chargeable.”

「交通時間可能屬於不可計費時間。」

DA. CHARGING — BILLING

90. charging = the act/system of imposing fees — 收費；計費

Practice 161

> “The company changed its charging structure.”

「公司改變了收費結構。」

Practice 162

> “Road charging can reduce congestion.”

「道路收費制度可以減少擠塞。」

Note the ambiguity:

> charging in EV essay = 充電

> charging structure = 收費制度

DB. ROAD CHARGING

91. road charging = 道路收費

Practice 163

> “The city is considering road charging.”

「城市正考慮推行道路收費。」

Practice 164

> “Road charging aims to manage traffic demand.”

「道路收費旨在管理交通需求。」

Not about charging batteries.

DC. CONGESTION CHARGE

92. congestion charge = 擠塞費；交通擠塞收費

Practice 165

> “Drivers must pay a congestion charge in the city centre.”

「司機進入市中心要繳付擠塞費。」

Practice 166

> “The congestion charge reduced traffic.”

「擠塞費令交通流量下降。」

High-value transport-policy term.

DD. CHARGE = TAX / LEVY? PRODUCTIVE, NOT DISTINCT CORE

Examples:

- * environmental charge
- * handling charge
- * late-payment charge

These all belong to:

> fee / amount demanded

No need to split each as separate lexical meanings.

DE. CHARGE = MEDICAL BILLING

93. hospital/medical charge = 醫療費用

Practice 167

> “The hospital charge included laboratory tests.”

「醫院收費包括化驗。」

Practice 168

> “Insurance covered most medical charges.”

「保險支付了大部分醫療費用。」

Same fee branch, domain-specific.

DF. CHARGE = FINANCIAL SECURITY? “FIXED CHARGE / FLOATING CHARGE”

94. charge = legal security interest over assets — 押記；抵押權

A major legal/finance sense, especially BrE/Commonwealth.

Practice 169

> “The bank holds a charge over the property.”

「銀行對該物業持有押記 / 抵押權。」

Practice 170

> “The company granted a charge over its assets.”

「公司以其資產設立了押記。」

charge — secured finance = 債權人對資產享有的法律擔保權益

This is genuinely distinct and important.

DG. FIXED CHARGE

95. fixed charge = 固定押記

Practice 171

> “The lender holds a fixed charge over the building.”

「貸款人對該大樓持有*固定押記*。」

Practice 172

> “A fixed charge attaches to specific assets.”

「固定押記通常針對特定資產。」

DH. FLOATING CHARGE

96. floating charge = 浮動押記

Practice 173

> “The bank has a floating charge over the company’s assets.”

「銀行對公司的資產持有*浮動押記*。」

Practice 174

> “A floating charge may cover changing classes of assets.”

「浮動押記可涵蓋會變動的一類資產。」

Specialist but important in corporate finance/law.

DI. CHARGE = ENCUMBRANCE ON PROPERTY

97. charge on property = 物業押記 / 產權負擔

Practice 175

> “The title shows a charge against the property.”

「業權紀錄顯示該物業有一項押記。」

Practice 176

> “The charge must be discharged before sale.”

「出售前必須先解除押記。」

DJ. DISCHARGE A CHARGE — LEGAL

Not a separate charge sense, but useful:

> discharge a charge

> = 解除押記

Be careful:

> discharge in battery/electricity has another meaning, but that's a separate word family.

DK. CHARGE = CUSTOMER ACCOUNT ITEM

98. charge = individual billed item — 帳單項目 ; 記帳費用

Practice 177

> “I don’t recognize this charge on my card.”

「我不認得信用卡上的這筆扣款 / 收費。」

Practice 178

> “The statement shows several unexpected charges.”

「月結單顯示幾筆意外的扣款。」

Very common modern banking usage.

DL. PENDING CHARGE

99. pending charge = 待處理扣款

Practice 179

> “The payment appears as a pending charge.”

「這筆付款顯示為待處理扣款。」

Practice 180

> “Pending charges may change before final posting.”

「待處理扣款在最終入帳前可能有變化。」

DM. CHARGE = FORMAL ACCUSATION VS CARD CHARGE

Classic ambiguity:

> “I don’t recognize this charge.”

> could mean:

- * 不認得這筆信用卡扣款
- * 不認得 / 不同意這項控罪

Context decides.

DN. CHARGE = RESPONSIBILITY VS FEE — “NO CHARGE”

100. no charge = 免費 / 無費用

Practice 181

> “Repairs are available at no charge.”

「維修免費提供。」

Practice 182

> “There is no charge for the first hour.”

「第一小時免費。」

Do not confuse with:

> no criminal charge

where:

> charge = 控罪.

DO. CHARGE = THRILL / ENERGY? “GET A CHARGE OUT OF”

This is an idiom/phrasal expression, so per your SOP I won't promote it into the main set. It means roughly:

> get excitement/pleasure from something

But since phrasal/idiomatic structures are excluded by default, we can leave it secondary.

DP. CHARGED WITH MEANING

101. charged with meaning = 充滿 / 承載強烈意義

Practice 183

> “The image is charged with historical meaning.”

「這個形象承載著強烈的歷史意義。」

Practice 184

> “The phrase is emotionally charged.”

「這個詞語帶有強烈情緒色彩。」

This belongs to the intense-content metaphor.

DQ. CHARGED ATMOSPHERE

102. charged atmosphere = 緊張 / 情緒高漲的氣氛

Practice 185

> “There was a charged atmosphere in the room.”

「房間裡有一種緊張而情緒高漲的氣氛。」

Practice 186

> “The meeting ended in a highly charged atmosphere.”

「會議在情緒非常激烈的氣氛下結束。」

DR. CHARGE VS LOAD — ELECTRICITY

103. charge vs load

charge

= store energy in battery / electric property.

load

= amount of electrical power demanded by a device/system.

> charge the battery

> = 充電 > electrical load

> = 電力負載

Not interchangeable.

DS. CHARGE VS POWER — ELECTRICITY

104. charge vs power

charge

= store electrical energy.

= supply energy so device operates.

A phone can be:

> powered by cable

without necessarily:

> charging the battery.

DT. CHARGE VS REFUEL

105. charge vs refuel

charge

= replenish battery electricity.

refuel

= put fuel into petrol/diesel/hydrogen vehicle.

This contrast is central to your passage.

> charge an EV

> refuel a petrol car

DU. CHARGE VS TOP UP

charge

= broad battery replenishment.

top up

= add some energy to raise level, usually not from empty to full.

Since phrasal verbs are excluded by default, treat top up only as contextual comparison, not as a core entry.

DV. CHARGE VS RECHARGE

charge

= charge generally.

recharge

= charge again after use.

In everyday use, they often overlap:

> recharge battery = charge battery again.

DW. CHARGE VS ELECTRICITY BILL

charging cost

= cost of putting electricity into vehicle.

electricity bill

= broader bill for electricity consumption.

Not identical.

DX. CHARGE VS TARIFF

charge

= fee actually imposed.

tariff

= rate schedule / structured price.

Example:

> charging tariff = set price per kWh/time > charge = final amount billed

DY. CHARGE VS RATE

rate

= unit price.

charge

= resulting fee/amount.

> charging rate: $2/kWh

> total charge: $20

Important commercial distinction.

DZ. CHARGE VS SURCHARGE

charge

= base/general fee.

surcharge

= extra fee added on top.

> parking charge

> late-night surcharge

EA. CHARGE VS FINE

106. charge vs fine

charge

= fee for service/use.

fine

= monetary penalty for breaking a rule/law.

> parking charge

> = 泊車費 > parking fine

> = 違例泊車罰款

Excellent learner distinction.

EB. CHARGE VS PENALTY

charge

= ordinary fee.

penalty

= additional consequence/payment for breach, delay, violation, etc.

EC. CHARGE VS TAX

charge

= fee imposed for service/use.

tax

= compulsory payment to government under tax law.

A government charge may function similarly economically but is legally distinct.

ED. CHARGE VS LEVY

levy

= imposed charge/tax-like assessment, often by authority.

charge

= broader.

EE. CHARGE VS DEPOSIT

charge

= fee you owe.

deposit

= money paid upfront, often refundable/credited later.

Different transaction logic.

EF. CHARGE VS HOLD ON CARD

A card “hold” is a temporary authorization reservation.

A card “charge” is a debit/transaction amount.

Important in hotels/rentals:

* hold = temporary reserved amount * charge = actual billed amount

EG. CHARGE VS ACCUSATION

accusation

= claim someone did wrong.

charge

= formal legal accusation.

All charges are accusations, but not all accusations are charges.

EH. CHARGE VS COUNT — LEGAL

charge

= offence formally alleged.

= separate numbered allegation in an indictment/information.

One case may involve several charges/counts depending on jurisdiction.

Specialist legal distinction.

EI. CHARGE VS INDICTMENT

charge

= individual alleged offence / formal accusation.

indictment

= formal charging document in some legal systems.

Not interchangeable.

EJ. CHARGE VS DUTY

duty

= obligation expected of role.

charge

= responsibility specifically entrusted to someone.

> duty to supervise

> children in her charge

EK. CHARGE VS CARE

in someone's care

= looked after by someone.

in someone's charge

= formally entrusted to that person's responsibility.

Charge is more formal/authority-oriented.

EL. CHARGE VS COMMAND

in command

= military/formal authority over forces.

in charge

= general responsibility/control.

A commander is in command; a manager is in charge.

EM. CHARGE VS CONTROL

Already noted:

> in charge = responsibility/authority > in control = actual command over situation

EN. CHARGE VS MANAGE

manage

= perform ongoing administration.

be in charge of

= have formal responsibility.

Someone may be in charge without doing every management task personally.

EO. CHARGE VS LEADERSHIP

take charge

= actively assume control.

leadership

= broader process/quality of guiding people.

EP. CHARGE VS RUSH / CHARGE INTO

Because phrasal verbs are excluded by default, we keep these as construction examples, not separate dictionary branches.

EQ. CHARGE IN YOUR PASSAGE — WHY IT IS ESPECIALLY RICH

Your essay contains one of the most modern and concrete senses:

> charge a car

But the same word can mean:

- * charge a battery → 充電
- * charge a customer → 收費
- * a service charge → 費用
- * charge someone with theft → 控告
- * be in charge → 負責
- * charge at someone → 猛衝
- * electric charge → 電荷
- * explosive charge → 炸藥裝藥
- * charge expense to account → 記帳
- * charged atmosphere → 情緒緊張
- * fixed charge over assets → 固定押記

This makes charge one of the highest-value MCQ words in the passage.

ER. CORE SEMANTIC MAP

Historically and conceptually, the family clusters around ideas of:

> loading / imposing / entrusting / putting force or burden onto something

From there:

load with electricity

> charge a battery

impose money

> charge a fee

impose accusation

> charge someone with offence

entrust responsibility > put someone in charge

load with energy/tension > charged atmosphere

load with explosive > explosive charge

force forward

> charge at the enemy

The modern senses are genuinely distinct, but several still preserve this deeper notion of:

> putting something onto / into / against something else.

ES. FAMILY-EXTENSION SWEEP

Following the fullest-reference style, the useful modern inventory includes:

* charge — battery = 充電
* charging = 充電過程
* charger = 充電器
* fast charging = 快速充電 * home charging = 家居充電 * public charging = 公共充電
* charging station = 充電站
* charging point = 充電點 * charge — battery level = 電量 * hold a charge = 保持電量
* state of charge = 荷電狀態 * charge rate = 充電速率
* recharge = 重新充電
* recharge — figurative = 恢復精神
* recharge your batteries = 休息恢復精力 * charge someone money = 向某人收費 * charge for something = 為某項目收費 * charge — fee = 費用
* service charge = 服務費
* delivery charge = 送貨費
* extra charge = 額外收費
* free of charge = 免費
* surcharge = 附加費
* chargeable = 收費的 / 應繳費的
* charging — billing = 收費 / 計費
* road charging = 道路收費
* congestion charge = 擠塞費 * charge someone with a crime = 控告 / 起訴 * charge — legal accusation = 控罪
* bring charges = 提出控罪
* drop a charge = 撤銷控罪
* be in charge = 負責
* in charge of = 負責 / 主管 * take charge = 接管 / 掌控 * in someone's charge = 由某人照管 * charge at = 猛衝
* charge — attack = 衝鋒 * charge — physics = 電荷 * positive/negative charge = 正 / 負電荷 * charged particle = 帶電粒子
* static charge = 靜電電荷
* explosive charge = 爆破裝藥
* charge system with gas/refrigerant = 向系統注入氣體 / 冷媒 * charge something to an account = 記入帳戶
* card charge = 信用卡扣款

* charge someone with a task = 委派 / 責成某人 * charged — emotional = 情緒激烈的 * emotionally charged = 情緒高度強烈的 * politically charged = 政治意味濃厚的 * charged language = 帶強烈情緒 / 立場色彩的語言 * charge the jury = 向陪審團作法律指示 * jury charge = 陪審團法律指示
 * charge — secured finance = 押記 / 抵押權
 * fixed charge = 固定押記
 * floating charge = 浮動押記
 * overcharge — price = 多收費
 * overcharge — battery = 過度充電
 * undercharge = 少收費 / 未充足電

Master comparison

Form / sense	MCQ-ready Traditional Chinese meaning
-----	-----
charge — battery	把電能輸入電池，使其儲存能量
charging	為電池 / 電動車補充電能的過程
charger	為電池 / 裝置提供充電電力的設備
charge — stored electricity	電池內剩餘 / 儲存的電量
hold a charge	電池能長時間保存已儲存的電量 charge someone money	向某人要求支付某筆費用 charge — fee	商品 / 服務所收取的費用
free of charge	不需要支付費用
charge someone with a crime	正式指控某人犯某罪

floating charge	可涵蓋變動資產類別的浮動押記
overcharge — fee	向顧客收取過高 / 過多費用
overcharge — battery	為電池充入超過適當程度的電量

For your original passage

> “remove the inconvenience of charging”

and

> “they may have nowhere reliable to charge their cars overnight.”

The exact meaning is:

charge = 把電力輸入電動車電池，讓電池儲存足夠能量供車輛之後行駛。

Natural translation:

> 「消除充電上的不便」

> 「他們可能沒有可靠的地方可以在晚上替汽車充電。」

The highest-value contrasts are:

- > charge a battery → 為電池充電
- > charge remaining → 剩餘電量
- > charger → 充電器 / 充電樁
- > charge a customer → 向顧客收費
- > service charge → 服務費
- > free of charge → 免費
- > charge someone with theft → 控告某人盜竊
- > criminal charge → 刑事控罪
- > be in charge → 負責
- > take charge → 接管局面
- > charge at someone → 向某人猛衝
- > electric charge → 電荷
- > explosive charge → 爆破裝藥
- > charge to an account → 記入帳戶 / 扣款
- > be charged with a task → 被委派負責某任務
- > emotionally charged → 情緒強烈的
- > fixed charge → 固定押記
- > overcharge → 多收費 / 過度充電
- > charge ≠ refuel → 電池補充電能 ≠ 加入汽油 / 柴油等燃料
- > charge ≠ fee → charge 可作動詞「收費」，fee 主要是名詞「費用」
